

LiveAction Is the Go To Tool for Understanding Network Issues for Carnival Corporation

Introduction

This case study of Carnival Corporation is based on an August 2021 survey of LiveAction customers by TechValidate, a 3rd-party research service.

“In a VSAT environment where bandwidth costs are extremely high, understanding what is utilizing it is extremely critical as we want to ensure optimal guest experience for those that purchase an internet plan at sea. The UI is easy to navigate around and our VP of Technical Operations has taken an active role in using this tool for issues he is seeing. It’s the “go-to” tool for him and my team to get a solid understanding of issues and present report data on the guest experience.”
